

POLICY AND GOVERNANCE IN DIGITAL HEALTH

Course Duration- 2 months

Language- English

Type- Certificate

Enroll Now

Course Overview

Prepare to lead the future of healthcare with our comprehensive 2-month certification course in Policy and Governance in Digital Health.

This 2-month program is designed for students in health informatics, public health, and healthcare management, as well as healthcare professionals and policymakers seeking to advance their expertise in digital health. It provides a strong foundation in digital health technologies, examining their evolution and the rapid acceleration of digital transformation in the healthcare sector post-pandemic. The course also covers essential digital health policies, governance frameworks, and interoperability standards, equipping participants to navigate and shape the evolving healthcare landscape effectively.

How this Course Empowers You

- ▶ Solid foundation in digital health technologies and their evolution.
- ▶ Understanding of the impact of digital health on healthcare outcomes.
- ▶ Valuable data management skills in health informatics.
- ▶ Knowledge of data standards and cybersecurity to safeguard patient information.
- ▶ Ability to contribute to improved health outcomes through digital innovations.
- ▶ Expertise in evidence-based decision-making using digital tools.

Course Modules

- ▶ Introduction to Digital Health
- ▶ Digital Transformation in Healthcare
- ▶ Policy and Governance in Digital Health

Fee Structure

- ▶ Course fees: USD 400 (exclusive of taxes and bank charges)
- ▶ Group registration discounts available.

Course Inclusions

Easy to understand
Real life examples

Fully online

Self-paced learning
Learn with your convenience

Help desk & student support